Ecclesiastical Private Trust Cover Letter for External Agencies

Date: July 16, 2025

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter serves as a formal and sovereign declaration of the existence, status, and operation of the Clements Private Trust. The Clements Private Trust is a private ecclesiastical trust operating under spiritual jurisdiction beyond the domain of statutory, commercial, or corporate law.

All property, members, and conveyances under this Trust are protected and bonded by divine covenant. This Trust exists for the peaceful and spiritual care of its members and operates independently of civil oversight or regulatory enforcement. All members are under the exclusive protection, care, and authority of the living Trustee of the Clements Private Trust.

If clarification is required regarding the operation or standing of this Trust, you are instructed to contact the County Sheriff in supervisory status. The Sheriff serves as the highest constitutional officer and holds the local lawful authority to ensure peace and understanding between ecclesiastical and public domains.

This document is issued for external domestic, local, and international awareness and acknowledgment only.

This trust and its members are not subject to registration, taxation, oversight, regulation, or control by any external governing body, corporate entity, or international regime. We act in peace, with no hostility or intent to trespass, while fully retaining our divine and ecclesiastical rights.

If you are in receipt of this letter, understand it is a spiritual notice, not an application, petition, or submission. It is an expression of ecclesiastical authority and living law.

Sealed in private ecclesiastical authority, no witness required.

Signed in honor,

Living Trustee of the Clements Private Trust
